

ARTICLE 21

Applicable Law

Section 1. Definition.

The parties recognize that this Agreement is subject to the Constitution and Laws of the United States and the State of Michigan. To the extent that any provision(s) of this Agreement, or application thereof, is found to be unlawful or in conflict with the provisions of any such law, by a court of competent jurisdiction, or by the Michigan Civil Service Commission, it shall be modified by negotiations between the parties only to the extent necessary to comply with such laws.

Nothing herein is intended to prevent the Union from seeking redress from any decision rendered in accordance with the above provision, in a court of competent jurisdiction.